

Principal Advertisement
City of Belle Isle (/Edgewood) Charter School

Postings

1. Center for Education Reform
2. www.Teachers-Teachers.com (Florida Consortium)
3. Orlando Sentinel
4. Florida Today
5. Education Weekly
6. National Association of Secondary School Principals
7. Cities of Belle Isle and Edgewood websites
8. www.AASA.org

Timeline

Advertising: January 11th
Interviewing: January 18th – February 26th
Final Selection: Charter Academy Board

Advertisement

Organization: PCCA Elementary School (K-8) and Pine Castle Charter Academy High School (9-12) (Names of Schools Subject to change / approval of Charter Board and OCPS Board)

Description: The tuition-free public charter school will serve K-12 students from Belle Isle, Edgewood and the surrounding community and is scheduled to open for the 2010-11 school year. The Principal will be a strong, innovative leader with charter school startup experience. S/he will be able to build strong relationships and articulate the school's vision with a variety of stakeholders in a community known for its warmth and family values. Ability to drive and support implementation of vision and guiding principles to ensure a positive, achievement focused school culture among teachers, staff, and students. Qualifications include a Masters Degree or higher, State of Florida Certification in Educational Leadership, entrepreneurial in nature with a relentless drive and determination to achieve outcomes and results, which will be among evaluation metrics for the position. Compensation is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience and benefits are competitive. Please e-mail resume to: academicafl@yahoo.com or contact Cindy Gilmore at 321-298-4307 for more information.